CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- 1.—The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, subject to the reservation that the Auctioneer shall have the right (a) of regulating the amounts of the biddings; (b) of rejecting any bid; (c) of determining in his absolute discretion as to the validity of the biddings, or any other matter arising therefrom; and also (d) of bidding for, withdrawing, or entering the order of any lots.
 - 2.—The lots will be sold with all faults and errors of description, the Auctioneer not being responsible for the correct description, authentication of, or any default or defect in any lot, and making no warranty whatever, and shall immediately on the fall of the hammer be at the sole risk and expense of the respective purchasers, who shall, when required, give in their names and places of business or abode, and pay down in cash a deposit of 25 per cent. of the purchase-money, or such further sum as the Auctioneer may demand; and any sum so paid shall be applicable towards payment for all or any of the lots bought by such purchaser. The Auctioneer will not recognise the transfer of any lot from one purchaser to another, nor make any alteration in the sale book in respect thereof.
 - 3.—A purchaser shall not have the right to avail himself of any set-off or other plea for non-payment of his purchase-money, against the Auctioneer or his principals, but he shall be liable for any unpaid purchase-money whether the lots bought have been removed or not.
 - 4.—The Auctioneer will not be responsible for any loss occasioned by fire, theft, accident or otherwise.
 - 5.—The buyers shall remove their several lots at their own expense on FRI-DAY, 3rd December, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., but the purchase-money shall be due and payable on the day of sale, and must be paid on demand, before delivery of the lots, to the Auctioneer or the person appointed by him to receive the same. Should any of the lots be not cleared within the time above specified the purchaser shall be liable to the Auctioneer for any cost of cartage, storage, or other expense occasioned by such default, and interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per ann. shall be due and recoverable upon all accounts from the day of sale until the time of the settlement thereof.
 - 6.—Any damage done to the premises, or to any other property, by the purchaser or his employees while removing his lots, or otherwise, shall be made good by the said purchaser to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer.
- LASTLY.—If any purchaser neglect or refuse to comply with the above Conditions, or any of them, his deposit-money (if any) shall be forfeited, and the lots uncleared may, at the option of the Auctioneer, be re-sold without notice, by public auction or private contract, and any loss occasioned by such re-sale, together with all expenses attending thereon or arising under these Conditions, shall be paid by the defaulter at this sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages. This Condition however, is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale if he think fit, and the entry of the clerk, in the sale book, verified by the Auctioneer, shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract, and binding alike upon vendor and purchaser.
